

Position Profile:

Operations Manager

This profile represents the ideal person sought and the general overview of areas of responsibility.

POSITION

The Operations Manager is a dynamic and driven person with an innate ability to see God's fingerprints on every team member and a passion to maximize their effectiveness by creating clear processes, structure, and by equipping them with tools to help them succeed. The Operations Manager provides overall management of the church administrative and human resources functions, and must be capable of balancing a high level of productivity with management and leadership of others.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The Operations Manager will be accountable to the Director of Finance & Operations (DFO), and will provide management and leadership to the Operations Department and the volunteer Safety Team.

FIT

The ideal candidate is a dynamic, highly organized and experienced manager with a passion for supporting, equipping and empowering others. This person knows how to create an office environment that is fun, welcoming, healthy and productive. The candidate is a self-starter, highly collaborative and commands exceptional written and verbal communication skills. They can think analytically/critically, and are able to translate concepts into tangible actions with measurable results. This person understands the importance of discretion and professionalism in their role, and can maintain the confidentiality and trust of team members from all levels of the church organization without compromising positive and healthy relationships.

The candidate must possess strong relational skills and the ability to deal with emergencies and those that may be hurting with discretion and grace. This person must develop and maintain a working knowledge of the church management systems and drive innovation to improve utilization and efficiency. This person will collaborate with their peers to ensure the Operations department is providing the most comprehensive and cohesive solutions and services possible. The best candidate is a strong developer of people and will maximize volunteer engagement for both the reception and safety teams.

As one of the contacts for HR matters, the candidate must have experience dealing with a wide variety of personnel situations and has demonstrated an ability to effectively integrate faith with best practices to ensure solutions are holistic and implemented in a manner that embodies our operational values. The candidate will work to develop policies, processes, tools, and training programs with the goal of creating a healthy and productive culture that is focused on equipping, and empowering team members for greater Kingdom impact.
